Food

Friday evening: A finger food buffet will be provided free of charge.

Saturday lunch: A sandwich lunch will be provided free of charge, but please book.

Saturday evening: You can book a two-course meal (drinks not included) in the restaurant next door for €22 (bookings and payment before 31 May, to ensure speedy service). Some cake will be served during the interval at the dance.

You could eat in the restaurant without booking but service may take longer. You could also bring your own food and picnic in a nearby park or there are a number of restaurants and cafés about 5-10 minutes' walk away.

Drinks

Drinks will be on sale in the hall. You can bring your drinks for the course, but would you purchase drinks from the bar during the evening.

Accommodation

The cheapest options are the Youth Hostel and the Centre d'Hébergement at d'Coque sports centre. A number of people have stayed at the Campanile Hotel near the airport, which has reasonable prices; there have been no complaints about noise. There is also an Ibis Hotel near the airport. Some of the big hotels have special weekend rates. We may be able to assist with accommodation for a small number of people.

Reservations

You can make your reservation via bookings@scottishdancing.lu or by returning the form to a committee member on a dancing evening before Wednesday 7 June.
